

©2018 L Dawn Fischer

Noah and the Flood

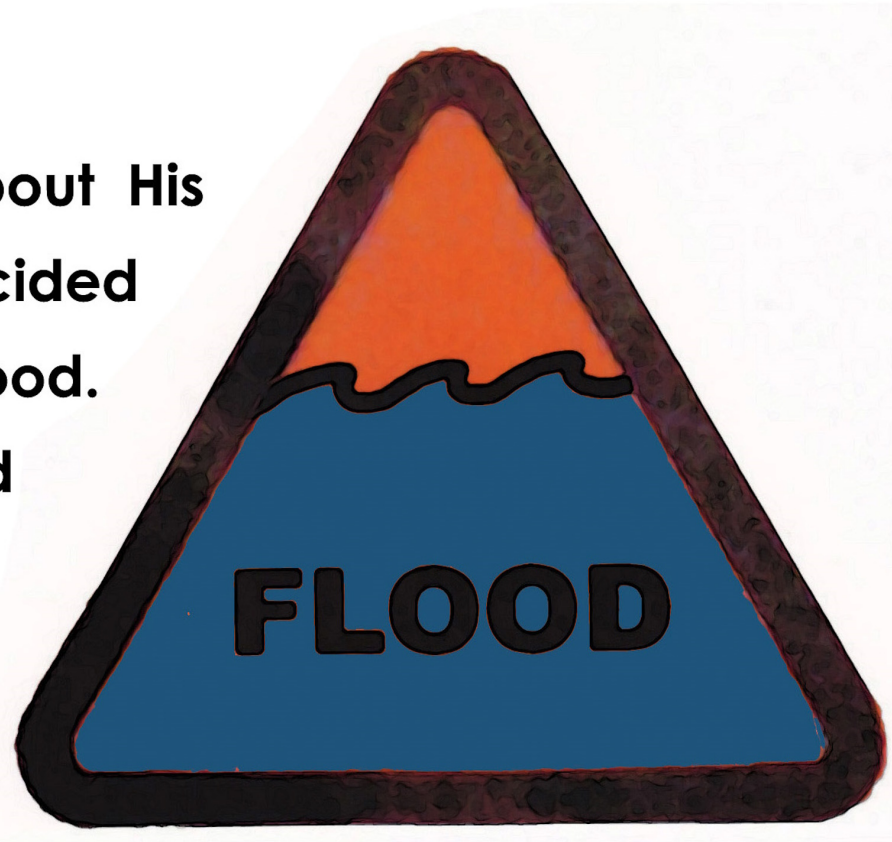

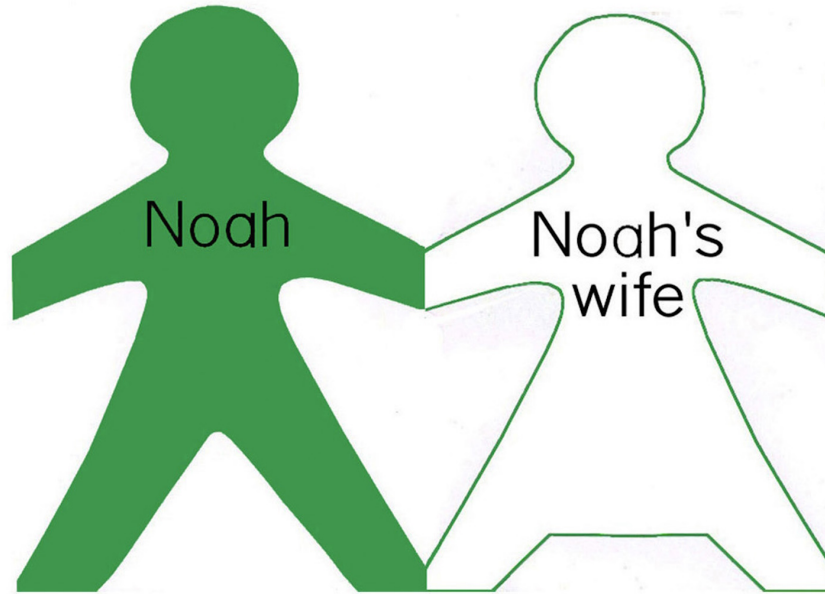

When God finished His creation He saw that it was very good.

But the people God created turned away from Him. They listened to that sneaky, lying snake. As time went by, the world became filled with people who loved to do very bad things.

God was so sad about His creation that He decided to destroy it with a flood.
But God remembered
a man named Noah.

Noah was a good man. He loved God and did what was right. So God made a promise to Noah, "I will save you and your family, too."

Shem

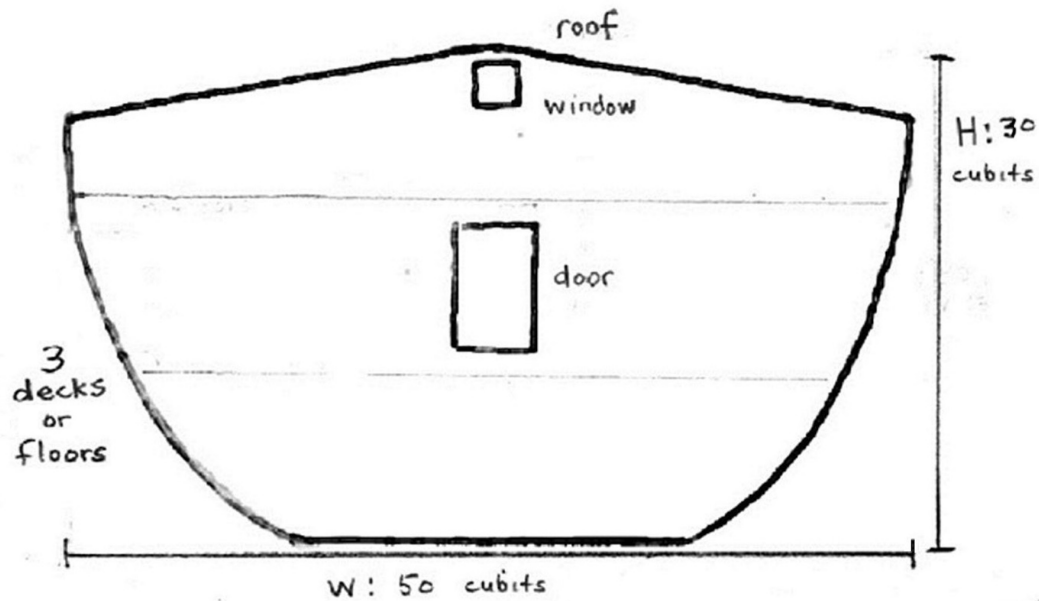

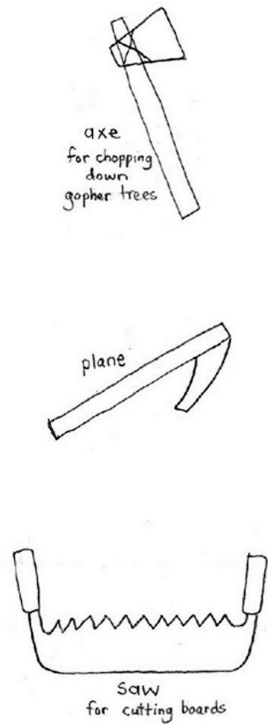

Ham

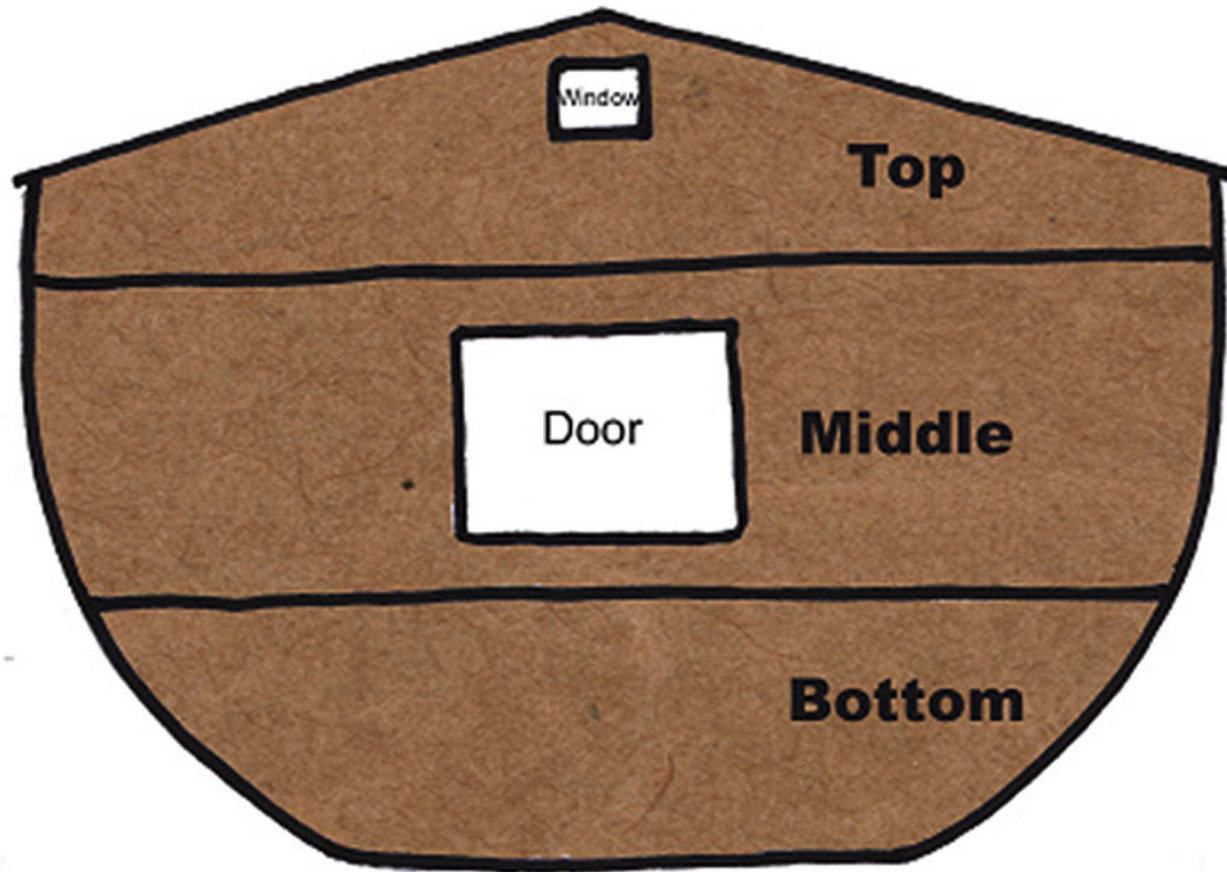

Japheth

Then God told Noah exactly what to do:
Build an ark of wood with 1,2,3 floors.

Put a roof on top. Make a window and door.

So Noah listened and he obeyed.
He did EXACTLY what God asked him to do.

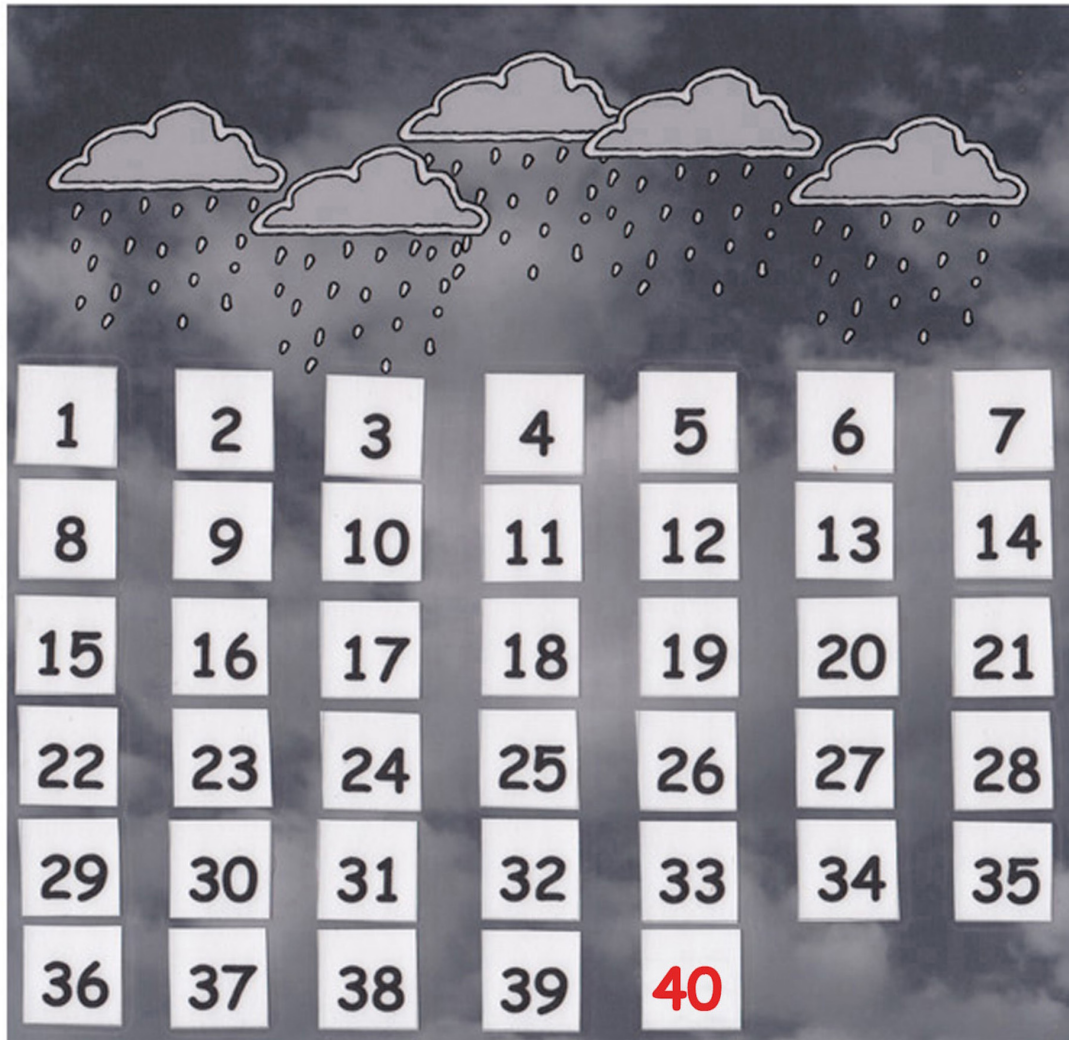

father elephant = bull

mother elephant = cow

Then God told Noah to take 2 of every kind of animal into the ark: one boy and one girl elephant, one boy and one girl zebra, one boy and one girl monkey... until 2 of every kind of animal was safe on board.

When Noah's family and all the animals were safe inside,
God shut the door.

The fountains were opened and it rained for 40 days and nights.

When the rains came down, the Ark floated up,

and up,

and up.

Then the rain stopped. God sent a drying wind. The flood waters slowly went down. Finally, the Ark rested on the dry ground of a mountain.

Noah sent a dove out of the Ark three times:

The first time, it came back with nothing in it's beak.

The second time, it came back with an olive branch in it's beak.

And the third time, it did not come back at all.

Noah, his family and all the animals left the ark. God said, “Be fruitful and multiply!”

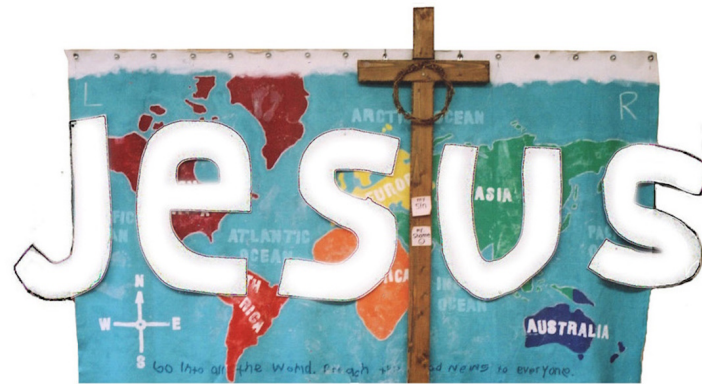

Noah built an altar and made an offering to the LORD. “Thank-You, God, for saving us!”

The LORD was pleased with Noah’s offering.

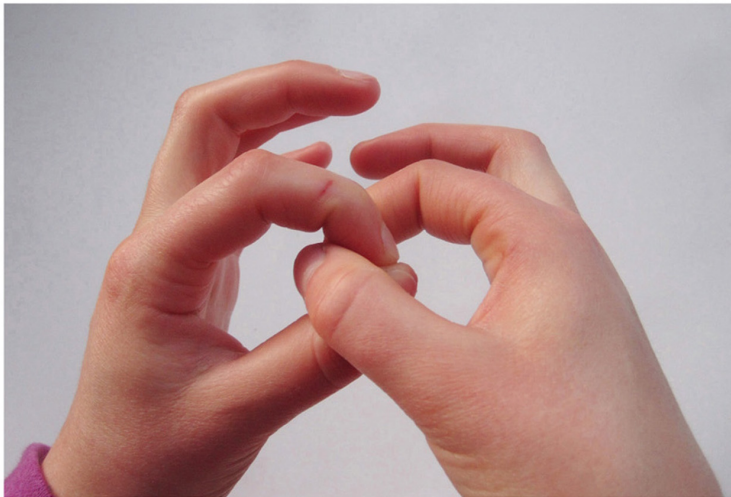

Then God made a promise to Noah and his family and to all living creatures. “Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy the earth. My rainbow in the cloud will be the sign of My Everlasting Promise.”

God made another promise to people everywhere....
If you believe in Jesus, you will be saved! Jesus came to save us from the lies of that sneaky snake named satan. Do you want to be safe with Jesus?

Yes, Jesus, I want You to save me. Please forgive me for disobeying You.
Wash my sin away with Your blood. Thank-You, Jesus for loving me.

God will keep (x3)

all His promises!

Promise Maker, Promise Keeper

FAITH IN GOD'S PROMISES PROTECTS US LIKE A SHIELD OF ARMOR

...take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Eph 6:16