Your Neighbor

Adapted from the story of the
Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37)

A man was traveling down the road.

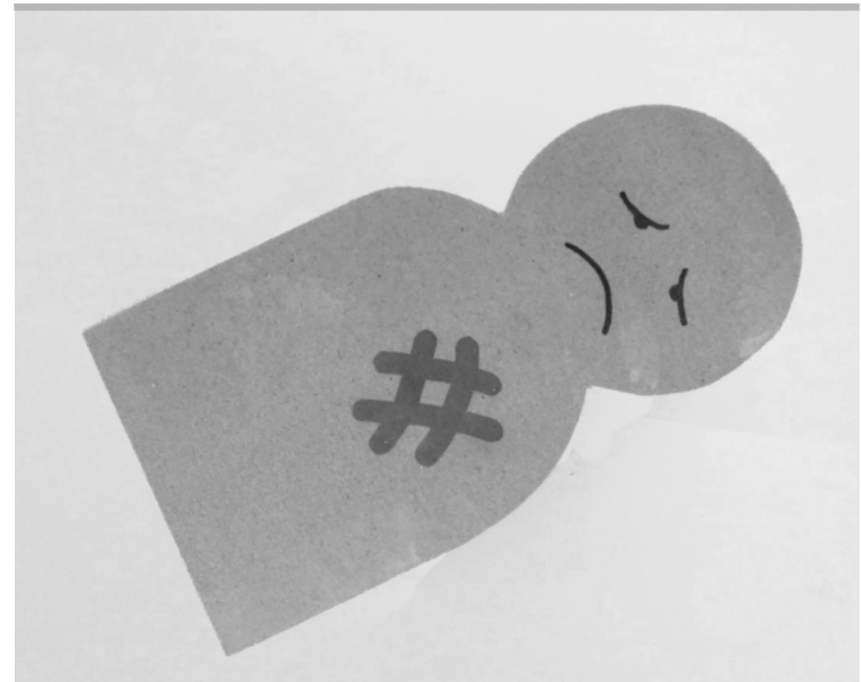

Where was the man?

The man was on the road.

Suddenly, robbers jumped on him. They beat the traveler, stole his belongings, and left him to die!

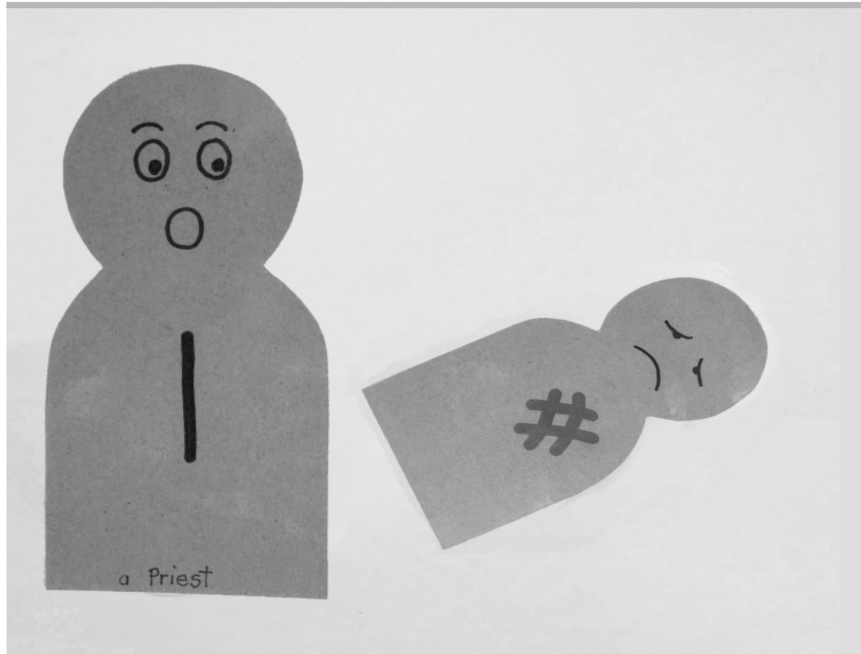

Oh no! What happened to the traveler?

The man got hurt!

Along came man #1. He saw the beaten traveler lying on the road but he did not stop to help him.

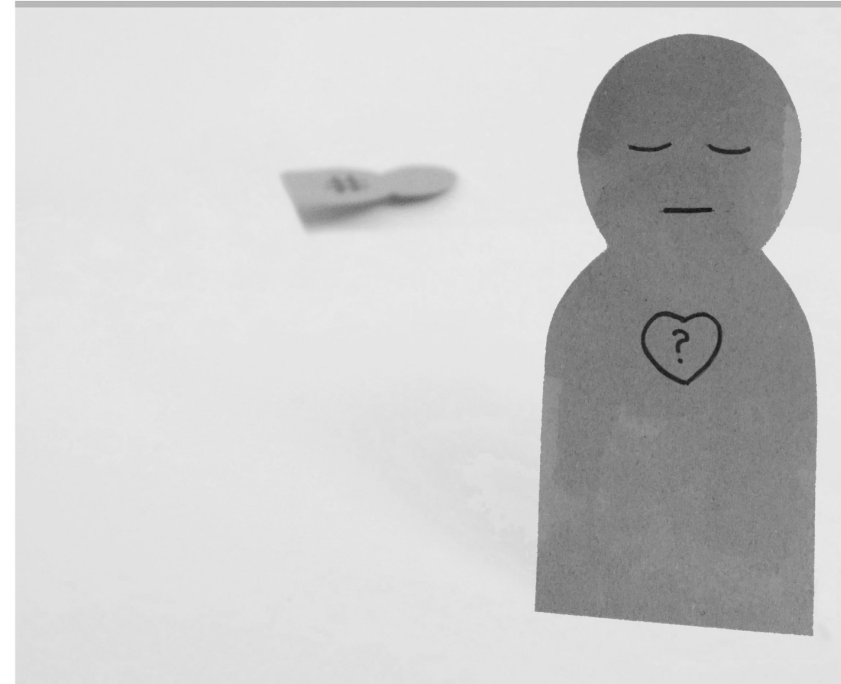

Did man  stop to help?

Man 1 did not stop to help.

He passed by on the other side and left the man to die.

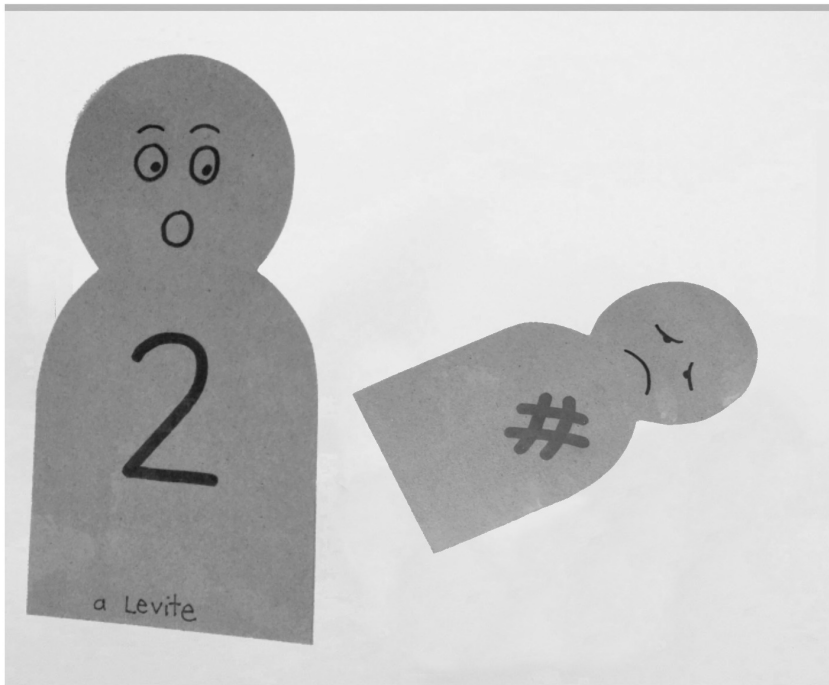

Did man 1 say, "YES, I will help",
or "NO, NOT ME"?

"No, not me!"

Along came man #2. He saw the beaten traveler lying on the road but did not stop to help him either.

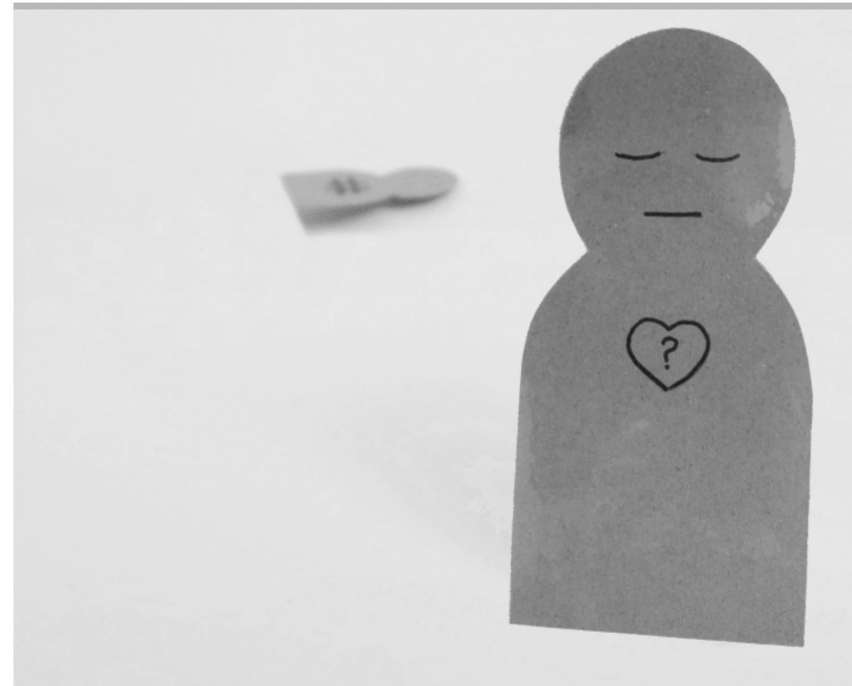

Did man  stop to help?

Man 2 did not stop to help.

He passed by on the other side and left the man to die.

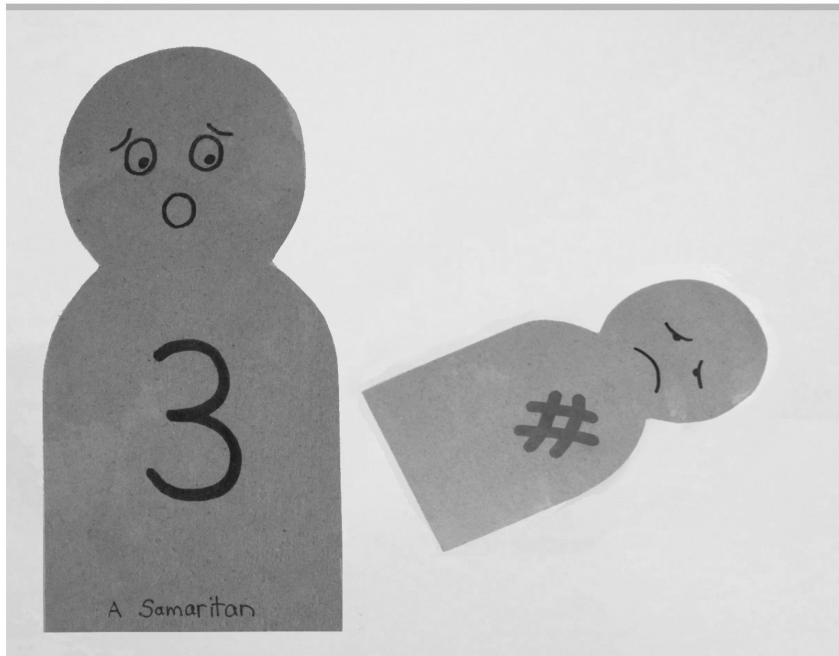

Did Man 2 say, "YES, I will help",
or "NO, NOT ME"?

"No, not me!"

Along came man #3.

What will man 3 do? Will he pass by?
Will he leave the hurt man to die?

What will man 3 do?

When he saw the beaten traveler, he stopped to help. He cleaned his wounds, poured oil on them, and covered them with bandages. Then he carried the man on his donkey to an inn and paid the inn keeper to take good care of the man until he was well again.

Did man  stop to help?

Man 3 stopped to help!
He said, "Yes, I will help."
