

Abram Trusted God

Based on Genesis 12-21

This is a story about a man named Abram.

God called to Abram and said, "I want you to leave this place and go to a new land."

Abram said YES to God. He packed up his belongings...

...and headed for a new land with Sarai his wife and his nephew Lot.

God went before Abram, leading the way. He showed Abram where to stop and pitch his tent. I am giving this land to your family forever", God said.

Abram built an altar of stones to say
THANK YOU GOD, I am trusting in You.

God made an agreement with Abram. "I am God Almighty. Walk with Me, Abram. I will make you the father of many peoples (nations)". God gave Abram a new name. Now he was called Abraham and Sarai was called Sarah.
